FINANCIALS

The financial review for August 2018 Parks and Recreation Commission was accepted by Elbe and was seconded by Kasper and all other members agreed.

Park Grants Update:

Mike gave an update on the MEPRD .

Tree Sub Committee:

Ryan Hinrichs stated that the committee is looking at the aging trees and working on a plan. Many of the trees have dead limbs on them and are in bad shape per Paul Schorr and a safety hazard. Ryan also explained that they need soil sulfur due to the iron deficiency they are seeing in the park trees. Parks and Recreation Commission agreed that an assessment should be done by an arborist and a written plan be made and presented to the commission. Assistant City Manager Mike Bolt stated that he would look into putting money in the budget for the trees.
